CLAIM TO BE SETTLED

Receiver Ainger Authorized to Make a Settlement With Thompson
Glass Company.

SECURITIES OBTAINED IN FULL

Terms of Settlement as Set Forth in a Petition Filed in the Circuit Court Saturday.

Upon a petition filed in the circuit court Saturday Judge Coolidge has granted an order authorizing Receiver Ainger of the First National bank to settle the $20,000 claim of the bank against the Thompson Glass company, of Gas City, Ind., the settlement to be made according to the terms set forth in the petition filed Saturday.

The terms of settlement give the bank cash, accounts and stock on hand, amounting to $5,100; unincumbered real estate, $7,000; equity in mortgaged farm property, $1,600; second mortgage on 75 lots in Gas City, Ind., $4,200; note of Thompson Glass company, $2,900.

These securities are all considered gilt-edged and the prospects are favorable for realizing in full on the Gas City loan.

A SURE THING.

Benton Harbor Folks Will See Katie Putnam.

It is now certain that a special train will be run to Dowagiac tomorrow evening to witness the opening of the dramatic season at the Beckwith Memorial theatre by the local favorite, Katie Putnam.

The excursion will be in charge of Dr. Bastar and Justice Graves.

It is a happy thought to thus honor a local actress of worth and proves that unlike a prophet an actress is not without honor in her own country.

SUSPECT PULLED.

He Had Razors and Revolver on His Person.

Officer O'Brien this afternoon found a suspicious character trying to dispose of a razor in Morehouse & Wheaton's shop. "What else you got in your clothes," inquired the officer. "Nothing," was the reply. "Guess I'll see," and the officer searched the suspect, finding another razor, one revolver, silver sugar spoons and a putty knife. The officer locked the fellow up and will detain him several days, to see if he is not wanted somewhere. Three drunks were locked up last night.

MATRIMONIAL.

Nuptials of Prominent Young People
Celebrated Last Week.

Eugene Brunke, of Royalton, and Miss Annie Elisher, of Hinchman, were married Saturday in St. Joseph, by Justice St. Clair. Marion Wagner, of Lincoln township, and Miss Hattie Brunke, of Royalton township, were the witnesses.

The marriage of Jay Caldwell and Miss Blanche E. Flary, of Bourbon, Ind., was solemnized at Niles Friday, by Rev. G. S. Slusser.

Perry Phillips and Miss Mary Soules were united in marriage Friday at Niles, by Justice Dobson.

DEER SLAYERS.

They Start for the Northern Woods in Squads.

County Clerk Needham was kept busy Saturday and today issuing deer licenses to local nimrods who will try their luck in the northern woods. Several parties left last night, others will go tonight and others tomorrow night. Among the licenses issued Saturday and today were the following: G. A. Hopkins, John and Jacob Bower, Adam Michael, G. W. Barrett, C. L. Valentine and L. W. Pearl, Benton Harbor; Stanley D. Guy, Charles W. Harris and David Muth, Coloma; S. Neidinger, Baroda; Alvin and E. Puterbaugh, Eau Claire; Jessie Shingledecker, Pipestone.

The name of L. W. Pearl, the veteran deer slayer, is seen, is included in the list. He is 82 years old, and almost as sprightly as ever. He hasn't missed a season's hunt in many years.

OYSTERS

28c Per Quart

20c Per Can

On and after today I will do a retail oyster business, selling to customers at wholesale prices. Oysters fresh every day. No old store stock. Solid measure. North end of Broadway.
G. W. LYTLE.

Special clock sale next Saturday. C. R. Hall & Son, Jewelers.

THE WEATHER.

Rain, snow and colder tonight and Tuesday. Northwest winds.

ELECTION RETURNS.

They Will Be Received at Hotel
Benton Tuesday Evening.

A special Western Union wire is being run into the sample rooms of Hotel Benton and tomorrow evening the returns of the great elections in New York, Ohio, Iowa, Kentucky and Maryland will be received.

No one need go to bed tomorrow night without knowing the name of the first mayor of greater New York, getting an idea whether free silver is dead and learning to an almost certain extent whether Senator Mark Hanna will succeed himself.

An admission of 25 cents will be charged to cover the cost of the wire service.

A GREAT ARTIST.

Sig. Angelo Patricolo Will Appear Here
November 17.

Sig. Angelo Patricolo will give a piano recital here November 17 under the auspices of the choir of the First Congregational church.

Prof. Sherwood, the great Chicago musician, calls Patricolo the second greatest pianist in the world.

Harry C. Plimpton, his manager, is in the city.

LAW IS OFF.

St. Joseph Wheelmen Can Now Ride on Walks.

The ordinance which caused so much consternation among the St. Joseph wheelmen by requiring them to carry lamps and bells and keep off the sidewalks lapsed today, and a more tickled lot of cyclists than St. Joseph today contains would be hard to find.

The ordinance was the most unpopular ever passed by the city council and it is not probable that another like it will ever be passed.

A BARODA KICK.

Business Man Doesn't Like Store and Postoffice Together.

A prominent citizen of Baroda writes in regard to the postoffice dispute at that place:

"Mr. Hogue, the newly appointed postmaster, is getting ready to move the postoffice into this store. This is contrary to the wishes of the patrons of the office.

"It is believed here that Mr. Hogue was promised the postoffice by Congressman Hamilton last spring when the latter made his visit to St. Joseph. It is believed that if a vote were taken nine out of every ten patrons of the office would vote against having the postoffice combined with a store. Mr. Hamilton knew this, or at least he was informed of the fact, long before the appointment was made. There were four candidates in the field and the successful one was the one who had the smallest petition. There was one candidate on whom all could agree and there would have been no mix up of groceries and mail.

"Baroda republicans do not thank St. Joseph and Benton Harbor politicians from mixing up in their affairs and dictating who shall hold their offices."

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY.

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure.

Croker's Eloquent Proxy.

There is one place in this country where they think Richard Croker is a great orator. It is in Utah.

"I never made a speech in my life," said Mr. Croker, "except by proxy. At the Democratic national convention of 1888, held in St. Louis, there were contesting delegations from Utah. One of these delegations was for Cleveland and the other against him. Naturally our sympathies were with the latter. When the Utah fellows asked some of our men to have Croker present at the meeting of the committee on credentials to make a speech in their favor, our fellows promised, thinking to play a joke on me. But I sent another man to speak for me. He was introduced as Croker, and as he was not known at all then every one was fooled. The speech he made them was a rattler, and it carried everything before it like a storm. To this day out in Utah they think I am a great orator."

"Who was the man that spoke for you?"

"Bourke Cockran."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Willson's Extract.—Men have been advertising Willson's pure flavoring extracts from house to house throughout the city and will be sold by all of the leading grocers in the city, at present they are sold by Chas. H. Hopkins, the grocer, and at Mrs. T. B. White's ice cream parlors, Pipestone street.

The news service of The Chicago Chronicle is complete. Those who have not read this model newspaper lately should send for a sample copy. It is absolutely free.

The Tribute Father McGlynn Paid to the Memory of Henry George.

A VERY NOTABLE FUNERAL.

Men of All Ranks and Denominations and Faith Honor His Memory.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The funeral service yesterday over the remains of the late Henry George were more impressive than any ever before held in the memory of a private citizen. The body lay in state and was viewed by over 30,000 people, composed of men and women of all walks of life, including many of the best known citizens of Greater New York.

Funeral orations were delivered by Rev. Fr. McGlynn, who was suspended from the Catholic church because he was captivated by the theories of Henry George, Dr. Lyman Abbott, Rabbi Gottheil and others. Dr. McGlynn said:

"The place where we meet here this afternoon is not dedicated to religion, or to the service of God, but has generally been used for purposes of recreation or amusement or of art. It has today been made sacred, and we meet here upon holy ground and stand ashamed in the presence of a message directed at us from the throne of God. It is no ordinary message. That message of death has brought to our hearts that which has immeasurably shocked us.

"We stand upon the ground that is made sacred by the remains of a man who was raised from among us by our Father in heaven to spread the messages of truth and righteousness and justice and peace to all. He died in a struggle for the cause of humanity, and especially that of New York, but it was altogether too small for his broad mind and indomitable energy.

"He was simply a seer, a prophet, a forerunner sent by God, and we can say in all reverence and in the words of the scripture that: 'There was a man sent from God whose name was John.' He was sent to bear witness of the light." I believe that I am not guilty of any profanation of the sacred scriptures when I say that there was a man sent from God and his name was Henry George."

DEPARTMENT STORES.

Chicago Will Try Their Strength in the Courts.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1.—Backed by Mayor Harrison, Corporation Counsel Thornton will begin a fight on department stores today. The whole power of the administration will be behind him. Proceedings will be instituted in some justice court by Assistant Corporation Counsel Sullivan against the Fair, Seigel, Cooper & Co., Morgenthau, Bauland & Co., and A. M. Rothschilds & Co., to compel them to observe the provisions of the Walker ordinances.

BRYAN AND HANNA.

Each Made a Speech and Scored Each Other.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 1.—William Jennings Bryan arrived in Cleveland Saturday evening to close the campaign for the democrats. He spoke at three meetings. His remarks were directed mainly against Mr. Hanna. He said he had come from Nebraska to bury Marcus Hanna. He charged that Mr. Hanna was at the head of a conspiracy to turn the country over to the financial control of Europe, and also that Mr. Hanna intended to turn the greenbacks over to the national banks.

Senator Hanna closed his campaign Saturday with a speech at Music hall. Senator Hanna said that he was amazed and astounded at the audacity of Mr. Bryan, who had come to Ohio to tell the people they had made a mistake last year when they voted overwhelmingly against the policy which Mr. Bryan represented. He said the issue involved in last year's campaign had been settled and settled for good. He urged the voters not to reverse the verdict they gave one year ago. The other speaker at the meeting was Commissioner of Patents Butterworth.

Provisions for Dawson.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—A telegram was received at the war department Saturday from Capt. Ray dated at Fort Yukon, Alaska, September 17, saying he had landed 800 tons of provisions there to be freighted by dogs to Circle City and Dawson, when the river closes. Circle City has no supplies but the situation may be relieved next spring.

any of them are small evils. To them we are a dead man, "out of mind." To whom the proverb de mortis applica. And our friends are twice our friends. No one who is not "laid by" can understand the depths of human sympathy. Even our acquaintances become our friends, and the least soft hearted of visitors murmurs to himself, "Poor soul!" or perhaps (with equal commiseration), "Poor devil!" What is most curious is the interest, if we have in any way become known to the public at large, complete strangers take in our physical and mental condition.

If prescriptions could cure us, we should be in rude health indeed. The materials are sometimes a little difficult to procure. I have seen a letter from New Zealand recommending an old gentleman suffering from rheumatic gout to bathe in whales. In that island whales, it seems, are occasionally thrown up on the seashore, when rheumatic patients hasten to lie in them during the progress of their evisceration for purposes of commerce. The extreme rarity of whales upon the Thames embankment seems to have been unknown to the writer. Some correspondents give most excellent sanitary advice, but too late for its practical application. An aged poet who had lost the use of his limbs was exhorted by an admirer to dig, "even if it were but in his back garden," for an hour or two every morning before breakfast. All that was wanted, he was assured, for complete recovery was "profuse perspiration followed by a healthy glow."—James Payn in Nineteenth Century.

His Own Recommendation.

When J. W. Sherwood, now general superintendent of the Clover Leaf, was superintendent of the Big Four, he had to discharge a brakeman for violation of the rules. The man hung about the office asking for a letter of recommendation. To get rid of him Mr. Sherwood told W. A. Sullivan, who was his chief clerk, to write the letter. This Mr. Sullivan did. The man went out and returned in half an hour.

"What's the matter now?" asked Mr. Sherwood.

"That letter you gave me is all right, isn't it?"

"Of course it is. That ought to get you a job anywhere."

"Well, I wish you would read this letter of recommendation I've got, Mr. Sherwood, and give me a job."

Sherwood took the letter on which his own name was hardly dry, read it carefully and remarked:

"I am well acquainted with Sherwood, and any one he recommends must be all right. You report to the trainmaster and tell him to put you to work."

—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Coming Fiction Heroes Will Be Patriots.

"Patriotism of the right sort will be the master passion of the coming hero," writes Droch of "Heroes In Fiction" in The Ladies' Home Journal. "It furnishes an endless scope for the highest kind of courage combined with that mastery of men that is leadership. And yet how seldom does it creep into current fiction, except in the spurious garb of rhetorical bluster or the melodramatic account of physical heroism in battle! There have been many attempts in American stories to depict the perversion of patriotism that shows itself in ring politics and corruption, but the plain citizen, doing his duty simply and at a sacrifice, is hardly alluded to. And yet the country is filled with him, as has been shown in every extreme test of its temper on a moral issue. As Lincoln often said, you can always count on the 'plain people.' Perhaps if more ideals of citizenship were depicted in popular fiction there would be more of the real thing in actual life."

Friends No Longer.

He was an estimable young man in every way, and she was more than estimable—in his opinion—so, with the idea of wheeling his way into her heart, he saved and hoarded his shekels and purchased a fine tandem, according to the Philadelphia Record. But "the best laid plans of mice and men gang aft a-gley."

They had ridden some 15 miles, and after slowly and laboriously pedaling to the top of a long hill, he, after mopping his dripping brow, gasped out convulsively, "M-M-May, you c-c-can p-p-put your feet on the c-c-coasters now." "Why," said his companion, "I've had them on ever since we started." He said nothing, but set his teeth grimly, and she has wondered since why he has not called on Sunday evenings.

Two Influences.

Young Man—That was an excellent paper your daughter read on the "Influence of Science as Applied to Practical Government."

Wearied Father—Yes; Julia is the pride of her class, and now that she has mastered the "Influence of Science as Applied to Practical Government" I hope that she will be able to find out something concerning the "Influence of the Broom as Applied to the Kitchen Floor."—London Fun.

The Mystic Number Five.

Five is the great sacred Chinese number. There are five virtues, five colors (yellow, white, green, red and black), five household gods, five planets (Saturn, Venus, Jupiter, Mars, Mercury), five ranks of nobility, five tastes, five cardinal points (the middle, east, west, south and north respectively) and five tones.

On the marble steps of a peasant's home on the island of Salsima have been found two lines of the epitaph composed by the poet Alphonse for the was my little girl's trouble—An accident on One of Her Limbs—Hood's Sarsaparilla Healed the Wound and Built Up Her System.

"Years ago my little girl fell and dislocated her hip. Doctors set the bone, but it worked out again and an abscess came on one of her limbs. The doctor said it was caused by dead bone, and he took out four inches of bone. He came to see her every day and washed the wound, but it would not heal. Finally the doctor gave up coming. Then I gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla and it proved to be worth its weight in gold. It built up her system, healed the wound and she is now able to walk. She has gained 15 pounds in weight since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla." Mrs. SYLVIA RICHARDS, Rogers, Michigan.

MONDAY, NOV. 1, 1897.

NOVEMBER made people aware of its presence this afternoon by its chilling breath.

A MEMBER of the football team of the university of Georgia is dead from the effects of a game Saturday. This is an indication that the college game this year is up to its usual standard of excellence.

SOME criticism has been given President McKinley because he made a speech in Ohio Saturday in the interests of Senator Hanna. The president was merely putting in practice the precept of the golden rule.

GENERAL Weyler surrendered his command of the island of Cuba Sunday and left the scenes of his cruel warfare on a Spanish cruiser. It was the wish of many good people that the butcher would never get away alive.

THE father of four pretty and accomplished young ladies, a St. Louis man, recently issued an ultimatum to the girls that they must marry before December 1 or leave home. The independence of the daughters has asserted itself and they have deserted the old man and will show him that they can make a living without their father or a husband either. The old man's grievance is that the girls had so many lovers, young fellows who parted their hair in the middle, that his bill for coal oil was ruining him. If the old miser had given his real reason perhaps the girls could have arranged it so that less illumination would have been wasted.

FOR an "off year" unusual interest is manifested in the elections that will occur tomorrow. The two greatest contests are those in New York and in Ohio. In the latter state the democrats have given up all hope of electing a governor and are concentrating their efforts to secure the legislature and defeat Mark Hanna for the senate. Betting is even on the legislature and favorite position. In New York it seems that the Tammany candidate will be elected and that Seth Low, independent republican, will distance the candidate of Senator Platt. There will be great anxiety to get the returns tomorrow night.

I would not live alway.

The Quick Return Home.

Saved From the Cyclone, Perhaps.

The great pressure of temptation comes sometimes in this direction. At about 20 years of age a man's nervous system changes, and some one tells him he must take stimulants to keep himself up, or he takes stimulants to keep himself up until the stimulants keep him down, or the man has been going along for 30 or 40 years in an unsuccessful business, and he is, as a consequence, very nervous, and he cannot lift himself and lift his family out from all financial embarrassment. He has to keep the chain, and he is

Many Bereavements Escaped.

The Center In Heaven.

Does not our common sense teach us that in matters of study it is better for us to move out from the center toward the circumference rather than to be on the circumference, where our world now is? We are like those who study the American continent while standing on the Atlantic beach. The way to study the continent is to cross it or go to the heart of it. Our standpoint in this world is defective. We are at the wrong end of the telescope. The best way to study a piece of machinery is not to stand on the doorstep and try to look in, but to go in with the engineer and take our place right amid the saws and the cylinders. We wear our eyes out and our brain out from the fact that we are studying under such great disadvantages. Millions of dollars for observatories to study things about the moon, about the sun, about the rings of Saturn, about transits and occultations and eclipses—simply because our studio, our observatory is poorly situated. We are down in the cellar trying to study the palace of the universe while our departed Christ is

The Old Sea Captain's Story.

He had often talked to me of the goodness of God, and especially of a time when he was about to enter New York harbor with his ship from Liverpool, and he was suddenly impressed that he ought to put back to sea. Under the protest of the crew and under their very threat he put back to sea, fearing at the same time he was losing his mind, for it did seem so unreasonable that when they could get into harbor that night they should put back to sea. But they put back to sea, and Captain Pendleton said to his mate, "You call me at 10 o'clock at night." At 12 o'clock at night the captain was aroused and said: "What does this mean? I thought I told you to call me at 10 o'clock, and here it is 12." "Why," said the mate, "I did call you at 10 o'clock, and you got up, looked around and told me to keep right on the same course for two hours, and then to call you at 12 o'clock." Said the captain: "Is possible? I have no remembrance of that." At 19 o'clock the captain went on deck, and through the rift of a cloud the moonlight fell upon the sea and showed him shipwreck with 100 struggling passengers. He helped them off. Had he been an earlier or any later at that point of the sea he would have been of no service to those

A WICKED CRIMINAL.

Jack Cannon, 10-Year Burglar, Escapes from Jackson.

JACKSON, Nov. 1.—Jack Cannon, a 10-year burglar, sent from Detroit two years ago, escaped from prison at 7 o'clock Saturday morning, in the face of passing people, and some of the officers.

Leaving the tailor shop, where he was working, he went into the chapel, and escaped from the tower block, by climbing from the window.

THE FLOWING CUP.

A Preacher Who Could Not Resist Its Power.

LANSING, Nov. 1.—A clerical appearing man giving his name as Henry F. Burnham, but bearing letters recommending Henry Barney, of Brooklyn, N. Y., as an "evangelist of 'unusual force and power'" was arrested Friday night for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. He admitted he had imbibed too freely and paid a fine Saturday morning.

One letter of recommendation was from Rev. M. Metcalf, a Congregational minister of Bancroft. The man was on his way to Kalamazoo county to hold a series of meetings.

TO ESCAPE ARREST.

Alleged Motive for a Suicide at Gobles, Mich.

GOBLES, Nov. 1.—Walter Elliott hung himself at noon Saturday in his barn, and was found by his wife, when she called him to dinner. An officer searched his premises Saturday morning and found some meat that was taken from a buggy Friday evening, and it is believed he committed suicide to escape arrest. He was insured in the Macabees for $2,000.

TO LET REV. TAYLOR OFF.

Habeas Corpus Proceedings Begun at Lansing.

LANSING, Nov. 1.—Application was made in the supreme court Saturday for a writ of habeas corpus for Rev. O. D. Taylor, who is awaiting sentence at Saginaw for obtaining money by false pretences. The application was based on the claim that Taylor was tried twice for the same thing and his conviction was, therefore, illegal.

LOCAL OPTION LAW.

Indications That It Will Be Sustained in Van Buren.

PAW PAW, Nov. 1.—The local option election in this county is being held today. The campaign has been an exceedingly warm one. The anti-saloonists have waged the better campaign, and everything indicates that the law will be sustained by an increased majority.

FISHERMEN WON.

The New Fish Law Cannot Be Enforced.

CHARLEVOIX, Nov. 1.—Mrs. A. D. Cruickshank and Fred W. Mayne, attorneys for the Charlevoix Fishermen's Protective association, have just received telephonic advices from Judge Corbett, of Traverse City, saying that he had denied the motion of Attorney-General Maynard asking the dissolution of the temporary injunction restraining the state game warden from enforcing the new fish law prohibiting the use of nets. This is a big victory for the fishermen of this section and a feather in the cap of the local attorneys who met the attorney-general in argument over the case. Fishermen from all over the state have been watching the outcome, and will now continue the use of their nets, while the game warden will have to go to the supreme court. The attorneys for the fishermen are confident they can beat him there. They say the law is plainly unconstitutional.

This Is Too Bad.

ADRAIN, Nov. 1.—A long-haired individual who has been here for the past 10 days claiming to be Francis Schlatter, the divine healer, and who has been holding out door meetings for deluded people, was put in jail Saturday morning on a charge of being drunk. He had tickets bought for himself and his manager for Toledo. He is having his hearing today.

Use Oleomargarine.

LANSING, Nov. 1.—Out of eleven samples of so-called butter served on as many Detroit hotel tables, gathered by the dairy food commissioner, State Analyst Borradaile has found nine to be oleomargarine.

A $100,000 Endowment.

OLIVET, Nov. 1.—Olivet college is to have a further endowment of $100,000. President Sperry announces that a wealthy gentleman, whose name is withheld for the present, has agreed to give the college $25,000 and two other gentlemen will make up the other $75,000 between them.

of God in having saved you to take any pay." Just like him. He never got any pay except that of his own applauding conscience.

Oh, that should sea captain's God might be my God and yours! Amid the stormy seas of this life may we have always some one so tenderly to take care of us as the captain took care of the drowning crew and the passengers. And may we come into the harbor with as little physical pain and with as bright a hope as he had, and if it should happen to be a Christmas morning, when the presents are being distributed and we are celebrating the birth of him who came to save our shipwrecked world, all the better, for what grander, brighter Christmas present could we have than heaven?

How Screwdrivers Are Made.

Some of the best screwdrivers are made from worn-out cotton spindles. In days gone by these worn-out spindles were thrown on to an old iron heap and left to rust until they were sold for old metal. Then somebody thought of grinding one end into a wedge and flattening the other. Result, a screwdriver of the best quality and a large percentage of extra profit for the cotton spinners.—Exchange.

A Complex Calendar.

The Chinese have a singularly complicated calendar. Their cycles have 60 years, each year, month and day having its own name, and by combining these the day, month and year are designated.

The New Stage.

"Ponjabber has struck a good thing." "What is it?" "He is engaged to revamp Shakespeare's plays so that vaudeville stars will act in them."—Brooklyn Life.

The man who invented the cone shaped glass lemon squeezer made $50,000 out of it and was lately offered $100,000 for four other inventions of the same simple and practical kind.

THE JUMPING OFF PLACE

of the United States in Northwestern Washington is a region of unusual grandeur.

A wild craggy range of mountains, the Olympics, looks out upon the waters of the Pacific Ocean and the strait of Juan de Fuca. The high peaks of the range are crested with eternal snow and ice. Deep in their hollows are lakes of great depth and crystal purity. The flanks of the mountains are covered with the finest timber in the United States. Giant pines, cedars and firs rise 100, 200 and even 300 feet in the air. The streams race through wild ravines and are full of mountain trout.

It is a paradise for the woodsman and angler. The lakes have large and new varieties of trout in them that fight viciously for life. It is a land little known and explored, perhaps less so than any region of equal area in the United States.

The Northern Pacific's new tourist book Wonderland '97, has a chapter on this section, and it will be sent to any address by Chas. S. Fee, Gen'l Pass. Agent, St. Paul, Minn., upon receipt of six cents in postage stamps.

Dr. McDonald
The Specialist.

OFFICE PARLORS AT THE Hotel Benton, Benton Harbor.

Tuesday, November 2

One day only each month.

OFFICE HOURS: 9 a. m. to 7 p. m.

Consultation and Examination Free

Dr. McDonald has for years made a study and specialty of chronic and lingering diseases that require skillful medical treatment for their cure. Such cases as family physicians fail to help and pronounce incurable are particularly solicited, especially those over-dosed with strong mineral drugs and poisons. Dr. McDonald uses only the purest medicines from the vegetable kingdom. He pays attention to the cause of the disease and instructs his patients the way to health and happiness. Dr. McDonald can show hundreds of testimonials in the hand writing of grateful patients who have been cured by him when others failed. He is so familiar with the human system that he is able to read all diseases of the mind or body correctly at a glance without asking any questions. Thousands of invalids are being treated daily for diseases that they do not have, while a few drops of medicine directed to the seat of the disease would give speedy relief, and permanent cure in a very short time. Good health is the most precious jewel in our crown of happiness. With it the world is bright; without it, misery claims us for her own. If you are a sufferer you should weigh well these words: A person who neglects his health is guilty of a great wrong to himself and a grave injury to humanity. The name of Dr. McDonald, the well-known specialist in the cure of chronic and lingering diseases, has become a household word in thousands of homes which his skill and wonderful remedies have made happy by restoring dear ones to health after all hopes were lost. The doctor is a graduate of the highest and best medical colleges, and his advanced theories in the treatment of chronic diseases surprise the most skeptical. All chronic diseases of the EYE, EAR, THROAT, HEART, STOMACH, and BOWELS, scientifically and successfully treated.

Dr. McDonald has made a special study of all diseases of the brain and nervous system, and all delicate and obscure diseases peculiar to women.

Dr. McDonald's Special Remedies are a permanent cure for men suffering from nervous and sexual debility and early decay. Rheumatic and paralytic cripples made to walk; catarrhal deafness positively cured and many made to hear a whisper in a very few minutes. All aches and pains fade away under his magical remedies. Epilepsy or falling sickness positively cured through his new method of treatment. Special attention given to catarrh and diseases of the blood.

Those unable to call write for question blank. Hundreds cured through correspondence. Medicines sent everywhere. Consultation free and strictly confidential. Address

ST. JOSEPH.

James A. Canavan is in Chicago on business for the Martin estate.

James C. Shuler announces that he will start for the Klondike February 1.

The police report a very quiet Halloween. No particular damage was done.

Mrs. M. Shepard has returned from a two weeks' visit with relatives in the west.

Dudley Wallace is quite well again and is able to be about the streets as usual.

Dr. McRoberts will conduct a small class in English literature this winter.

Austin Canavan will take a vacation from his duties at the postoffice during next week.

Sheriff Ferguson went to Jackson today with William Burns, sentenced to 4 years in Jackson prison.

Mrs. Jenny Wicker entertained thirty friends at a Halloween party at her home on Niles avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Holland have returned from an extended visit in the northern part of the state.

The Crescent society will meet this evening at the high school. An interesting program has been prepared.

Alexis J. Wallace returned to Traverse City today after a two weeks' visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace.

Arthur Goode went several miles up the river yesterday on a hunting trip and brought back a large bag of game.

Dr. and Mrs. Odis Moor went to Niles Saturday. Dr. Moor will take a two weeks' vacation from his duties at Holland's drug store.

Miss Mabel Kate Moon has returned from Kenosha where she attended the wedding of Miss Maude Cooper, formerly a resident of St. Joseph.

Mr. and Mrs. John Higman, jr., will entertain at tea the officers and teachers of the Benton Harbor Baptist Sunday school Wednesday evening.

News comes from Otsego, that Fred Anson is very low. Mr. Anson, until a short time ago, was a resident of this city and an employe of Mullen Bros. paper mill.

The Monday Night Literary society meets with Miss Minnie Chapman tonight. The society has taken up the study of Ancient Egypt this year along with current events.

County Clerk Needham and wife, Mrs. Wilkinson and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Morton and daughter drove to Buchanan yesterday to spend the day with Mr. Needham's parents.

There was an exciting bicycle race in St. Joseph yesterday morning. The riders raced a distance of five miles for a purse. Thomas McKay, St. Joseph's crack rider, won the race, defeating three other contestants.

Dr. McRoberts has resumed his Sunday evening services at the Congregational church. During the hot summer months, the Sunday evening services have been under the supervision of the Christian Endeavor society.

William Dahlke and Norman Badger captured a large number of birds on their hunting trip last Saturday. It is said that they brought home the largest string of birds which has been seen here in a number of years.

Miss Blanche Duggett entertained a large Halloween party Saturday evening. There were 20 ladies and 20 gentlemen present. The company met at Miss Duggett's home at 7:30 o'clock. The gentlemen were blindfolded and loaded into carriages which were in waiting. Totally unconscious of their whereabouts, the gentlemen were taken by their fair captors to Dr. Roberts' resort on the Lake front, about two and one-half miles south of the city. One of the capacious cottages had been prepared for the reception of the guests, who proceeded to make this Halloween night a merry one. The fire-place was used for the cooking of many choice eatables, which were served later in the evening. Upon the return home, the party enjoyed the melancholy of a trip through the cemetery. The party was a very pleasant one and will always be agreeably remembered by those who were so fortunate to attend.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

What Benton Harbor's People and Societies Are Doing.

On the evening of October 30, as Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Kimball were about to go to a Home Forum social, they were surprised by about 25 of their friends from St. Joseph and Benton Harbor, entering their pleasant home for an evening's enjoyment, who took immediate control. The evening was spent with music and games. A lunch was served consisting of sandwiches, cake and coffee.

Mrs. Homer Portman, Pipestone street, gave a delightful informal reception Saturday afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Cantrell of Grand Rapids. The Misses Addie Graves and Katie Fawcett presided in the dining room where dainty refreshment were served.

Mrs. Ida Parks left this morning for Dowagiac where she will spend the day with her mother and sister.

Bert Seeley and wife returned Saturday from a visit with relatives in Grand Rapids.

The Home Study circle will meet next Wednesday evening in the Presbyterian church.

Police Officer Crawford and John Hamilton left last night on a deer hunting expedition in Northern Michigan. Dennis O'Brien will take Mr. Crawford's place on the police force in the absence of that officer.

Lawyer J. W. Riford and Roscoe Farmer returned last night from a business visit to Chicago.

B. A. Herman, employed with Edgar Nichols, is in Lansing today taking an examination in pharmacy.

Guy W. Bracelin, of Allegan county, is the guest of his uncle, Lawyer Bracelin.

Mothers Praise Hood's Sarsaparilla, because, by its great blood enriching qualities, it gives rosy cheeks and vigorous appetites to pale and puny children.

Hood's Pills are the favorite family cathartic and liver medicine. Price 25c.

Paul Verlaine.

Verlaine is the master of lyric expression, using every delicate means in order to express every shadow of his sentiment and to excite by harmonious sounds the nervous strings of the modern, impressionable listener. That is why the "young ones" considered him their leader and why he was called the first symbolist. The melodious, suggestive words, the strange, symbolic pictures, arouse in the soul of the reader the impression which the poet wishes to give him. "Il pleure dans mon cœur, comme il pleut sur la ville," says the poet, and the use of assonance and alliteration ("pleure," "pleut") gives to the lines pleasing harmony and to the picture charm and color. To move the sensitive soul of the listener by the music of the rhyme, such is Verlaine's aim.

When Leconte de Lisle died, one of the Parisian reviews asked the literati and artists who, after the author of "Poemes Barbares," was worthy to take up the national lyre. The votes were all for Verlaine. The public of the boulevards was astonished at such an artistic plebiscite. The new poet laureate was so little known. Nevertheless many lovers of poetry loved and admired him. But how many lovers of poetry are there?

Paul Verlaine died Jan. 9, 1896, and was buried two days later in Clichy cemetery. All the artistic and literary youth of Paris followed his coffin. Several eminent literati spoke at his grave.

Verlaine never soiled himself with a falsehood, nor did he humiliate himself by seeking the applause of the multitude. His lyre was not for sale.—M. & C. de Solomons in Forum.

TO THE PUBLIC.

As a stranger soliciting a share of your patronage it is but just to you and to myself that I make some mention of my fitness for the work I would undertake. I come from a medical family, my father, brother and many relatives being physicians. I have attended and hold credentials from leading homo-pathic and allopathic medical colleges. For eighteen years I have successfully conducted a large practice. I have held high office in State and National medical societies, and received honorary professional recognition from abroad. I have had considerable hospital experience, am something of a medical writer and author, and have been professor in reputable medical colleges.

These frank statements can be easily verified. If they commend me to your confidence it will give me pleasure to professionally advise and assist healthward all who need and desire my services.

I am prepared to and will practice all branches of medicine and surgery, but because of special research, experience and success in this direction, greatly prefer and particularly invite those suffering from obscure, complicated, delicate, and all chronic or lingering diseases to consult me. Obsolete cases that others have failed to cure are solicited.

My office is at 112 East Main street, one door east of the postoffice. Respectfully, C. EDSON COVEY, M. D. 281619
